To Whom It May Concern

My wife and I contacted Mr. Ernie Gasparini of Roofresto to rejuvenate the terracotta tiled roof of our Brighton home just over 12 months ago. The roof had not been attended to in many years and many of the tiles were broken and porous. The cement around the pitch of the roof was cracked and missing in many places and the gullies were also in a bad way.

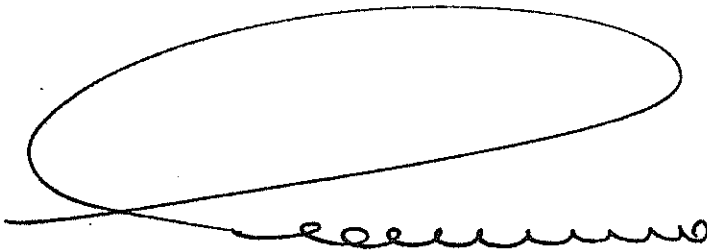

Ernie firstly cleaned the roof thoroughly then replaced the broken tiles with matching ones, recemented all the appropriate places in matching cement then applied two coats of clear weatherproof paint.

The roof came up looking like new and the job was undertaken for a very reasonable cost.

We were so pleased with the service and the job in Brighton that we again contacted Ernie to repaint the corrugated iron roof on our house at Red Hill. The roof, whilst in sound condition, had not had any attention paid it for over 18 years.

Again the result was excellent neighbors commenting that we had replaced the old roof.

We would have no hesitation in recommending the services of this honest man.
